OPINIONS DIFFER

As to the Erection of the Confederate Monument

IN CHICAGO ON DECORATION DAY

And There are Those who are Not Backward About Coming Forward to Express Them--Views from Men on Both Sides.

Boston, June 1.—In interviews yesterday several former Union officers in this city expressed their opinion regard to the monument dedicated Thursday at Chicago to the memory of rebel ex-prisoners of war.

Col. Henry Lee, of Lee, Higginson & Co., said:

"I believe in the magnanimity of Gov. Andrew in his farewell speech to the legislature, and I believe in the magnanimity of the Gen. Grant in the surrender of Appomattox. I think that while the confederate sympatizers are right in commemorating their dead heroes, they are out of their latitude when they raise a monument to them in the north."

Speaking of certain of the recent protests made against the monument by Grand Army men, Col. Lee said:

"Although many of the Grand Army posts indulge in cheap patriotism, they do not seem to favor cheap pensions."

Col. P. Halliwell, who commanded the fifty-fifth Massachusetts regiment, said:

"I tell my children that the underlying cause for the slaveholders' rebellion was an effort to extend and to perpetuate a system of slavery. It seems strange to them, and they cannot understand why memorials should be raised on northern soil and by northern men to rebel soldiers who fought for that purpose. At all events, I wish such memorials might be postponed until a few more of us are dead."

Col. Thomas E. Edmunds said that he had so far heard only the Grand Army side of the subject, and that before he expressed an opinion he wanted to see a picture of the monument and to hear what was to be said in its defense.

Dr. Samuel A. Green said:

"While I believe most thoroughly that the war is over, yet I think it was very ill-advised to dedicate that monument on Memorial day, and, furthermore, I think it is in very bad taste to put on the top of the monument the figure of a half-starved soldier. I don't believe that any of the rebel prisoners ever suffered for want of food while in the hands of the national government. I am the last person in the world—and I think the same can be said of all Union soldiers —to wish to keep up the animosities of the war, but I don't believe that the patriotic feelings of the rebel soldiers should be compared with the patriotism of the Union soldiers."

Gen. A. P. Martin said:

"I think the erection of the monument ill-advised, and I would strongly object to anything of the kind in Boston, because I think it is calculated to stir up bad feeling at a time when the north and south are fraternizing. But now the thing is done, it is better to let the agitation drop and allow the people of Chicago to take care of the matter. I think they are perfectly capable of doing so without any outside interference."

Secretary of State Olin said:

"I think it is in bad taste for the survivors of the southern rebellion to come north and erect a monument to commemorate their dead. They cannot very well charge the northern people with stirring up animosities, when they stir them up themselves."

Gen. Francis A. Walker said that if any considerable number of confederate dead lie buried in or near Chicago it seemed to him eminently proper that a monument should be erected over or near their graves. Any brave man is entitled to that form of recognition and remembrance. As to the dedication of such a monument on Memorial day, Gen. Walker said that it seemed to him a matter of taste. It certainly would be an instance of very poor taste unless there were some history behind this particular instance to justify it.

"It has been mutually agreed that the 30th of May should be the day of dedication of the graves of the dead of both armies, and if the posts of the Grand Army have officially joined with the confederates in the act, then no exceptions can be taken to the selection of this day for the dedication of the Chicago monument."

Gen. Kyd Douglas goes for Congressman Boutelle.

CHICAGO, June 1.—The telegram sent by Congressman Boutelle, of Maine, to Mayor Swift, protesting against the dedication of the confederate monument on Memorial day, aroused the indignation and fine scorn of Gen. H.
Kyd Douglas, of Maryland, yesterday.

"All that I would ask," said the ex-confederate and orator, who made the most brilliant speech at the banquet, "would be to have a chance at this man from Maine before a Chicago audience composed of Grand Army men.
The sublime impudence of this man is the height of impudence and audacity. The real representatives of Maine, Hale, Frye and Reed, have no such sentiments to express."

Murderous Attack on a Janitress.

New York, June 1.—Mrs. Ella Winslow, janitress of the house 237 East Fourth street, was assaulted and nearly killed by a negro in her apartment at that place about 6 o'clock yesterday morning. At that hour she heard a knock on the door, and, opening it, a negro pushed his way into the room and demanded money. Mrs.
Winslow screamed, and the negro drew a heavy weapon and struck her over the head with it three times, lacerating the scalp and fracturing the skull. The negro then escaped.
The doctor thinks that Mrs. Winslow will recover. The police are looking for the assailant.

Decision Reversed on the Grounds of Ex- cessive Damages.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 1.—The court of appeals yesterday reversed the $10,000 damage verdict in the case of Miss Tennie McEwan, of this city, against the Louisville & Nashville railroad.
The grounds for reversal were excessive damages. Miss McEwan was accidentally shot by a drunken negro on the defendant's train four years ago.
The shooting caused great indignation throughout the state, and resulted in the agitation of the separate coach bill, which afterwards became a law.

A Fully Provisioned Sponging Boat Stolen.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 1.—On Wednesday night a sponging vessel fully provisioned, was stolen from its moorings at Key West and has since been missing. The vessel was presumably taken by Cuban sympathizers.
A soldier deserted from the United States barracks at the same point and is supposed to have joined the sloop.
The United States and state authorities are searching for the fugitive vessel in the waters of the gulf and bay.

Ordered to Jiddah to Investigate Bedouin Outrages.

LONDON, June 1.—Three British war ships have been ordered to Jiddah, the seaport of Mecca, with orders to investigate the circumstances of the killing of the British vice-consul at that place and the wounding of the British consul, and the French consular secretary, by a band of Bedouins, and also to protect the lives and property of foreigners.

Death of Miss Buelah Kennard.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1.—Miss Buelah Kennard, who prepared the missionary calendar of prayer, which is in use in nearly all the Baptist churches throughout the country, and who was one of the best-known women connected with that denomination, died at her residence in this city Thursday night. Apoplexy was the cause of death.

The days of fraudulent baking powders are numbered. Dr. Price's is driving them out.

Indians Dying from an Epidemic Disease.

SPANISH RIVER, Ont., June 1.—An epidemic has broken out among the Indians along the Spanish river.
Seven deaths have occurred so far.
Dr. Stephen, of Manitowaning, the government surgeon to the Indians, is investigating into the cause.

Nine were Drowned.

LONDON, June 1.—The steam trawler Bittern foundered off Grimsby yesterday and nine of her crew were drowned.

USE WHITE LOAF FLOUR.

TO PUT ON
needed flesh, no matter how you've lost it, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It works wonder. By restoring the normal action of the deranged organs and functions, it builds the flesh up to a safe and healthy standard promptly, pleasantly and naturally. The weak, emaciated, thin, pale and puny are made strong, plump, round and rosy. Nothing so effective as a strength restorer and flesh maker is known to medical science; this puts on Acidity is not the fat of cod liver oil and its filthy compounds.
It restores every organ of the body to activity, purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood so that the body feels refreshed and strengthened. If you are too thin, too weak, too nervous, it may be that the food assimilation is at fault. A certain amount of bile is necessary for the reception of the fat foods in the blood. Too often the liver holds back this element which would help digestion. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery stimulates, tones up and invigorates the liver, nourishes the blood, and the muscles, stomach and nerves get the rich blood they require.

Spent Hundreds of Dollars with no Result.

M. J. COLEMAN of 112 Sergeant St., Roxbury, Mass., writes: "After suffering from dyspepsia and constipation with untold agony for at least 18 months, I am more than pleased to say that after using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets for one month, I was entirely cured, and from that day to this I do not know what a doctor or treatment is.
Boston, in one day (for his advice only) the sum of $1000 with $3.50 for medicine, and derived no benefit. I got more relief in one hour from your medicines, as far as my stomach was concerned, than from all the other medicines I used.
If any person who reads this is suffering from dyspepsia or constipation and will use your medicine as I have done, he will never regret it."
